

MIT Civil Services Training Institute (MIT-CST)

Test - 8

Topic : Indian Society

No. of Questions: 10

Batch: UPSC 1 Year

Timing: 1:30 hrs

Date: 31-08-2018

Total Marks: 100

No. of pages: 1

Instructions:

1. Each questions 10 marks
2. Cellphones are not allowed during the examination.
- 3. Write answer on separate answer sheet.

Q.1. Discuss current changes in marriage institution in India.

Q.2. Critically assess changing caste equation in Indian society.

Q.3. How image of new women in new India is different from previous era women? What are barriers faced by new women today? Discuss

Q.4. Critically examine whether growing population is the cause of poverty OR poverty is the main cause of population increase in India.

Q.5. Critically examine whether diversities reason for disparity in development around country.

Q.6. Explain how poverty, inequality and deprivation are interrelated. And what should be the government's role to eradicate poverty from country.

Q.7. Examine advantages and disadvantages of globalization for farmers.

Q.8. Substantiate ill effects of uncontrolled urbanization in India. Also discuss how smart cities could cure these ill effects.

Q.9. What is juvenile delinquency? According to NCRB juvenile delinquency is rising. Give reason behind this rise and future course of action to reduce it.

Q.10. According to census 2011 elderly population increased to 8.6 % from 5.6 % in 2001. What are reason behind this rise and depict problems faced by elderly in Indian society.